

Brightlingsea Harbour Charter Ferry Guide

The Colne Connection

Brightlingsea, St Osyth, Wivenhoe, Rowhedge, Hythe Quay

Set Prices for Charter Ferry Trips

Explore the River Colne 1 hour - £80.00

Brightlingsea to Wivenhoe return £130.00 - 2 1/2 hour trip with 1 hour stop

Brightlingsea to Rowhedge return £137.50- 2 1/2 hour trip with 1 hour stop

Brightlingsea to Hythe Quay return £165.00 - 3 hour trip with 1 hour stop

(see website for terms and conditions – www.brightlingseaharbour.org)

Explore the River Colne – 1 hour £80.00

Embrace the stunning coastal views and wildlife as our ferry takes you along the River Colne. Going towards Wivenhoe, you will pass Rat Island, Fingringhoe Nature Reserve; Alresford Creek, home to Ringed Plovers and Oyster Catchers to name but a few. Alternatively, if tides are right head down to St Osyth, and explore the various creeks. Finish your trip by taking a closer look at Brightlingsea Harbour, passing our resident yachts and power boats.

Brightlingsea to Wivenhoe or Rowhedge - £137.50
21/2 hour trip with 1 hour at either village

Sit back, relax and enjoy the stunning panoramic scenery along the River Colne to the picturesque riverside villages of Rowhedge and Wivenhoe. Enjoy a delicious meal at one of the numerous pubs or just take time to explore the quaint streets of these traditional maritime communities. You won't be disappointed.

Brightlingsea to Hythe Quay - £165.00

3 hour trip with 1 hour at Hythe Quay

If you have a little more time, take our ferry to Hythe Quay Colchester, passing the quaint riverside villages of Wivenhoe and Rowhedge. Hythe Quay is on the outskirts of the Roman town of Colchester, the oldest recorded town in Britain. Once you are at Hythe Quay have a bite to eat at the Boadicea with views of the river Colne before sailing back to Brightlingsea.